LADIES MEET AGAIN.

DISTRICT SECRETARIES SUBMIT-TED ENCOURAGING REPORTS.

The Conference Will Elect Officers To-Day, Discuss Business Matters, and Then Adjourn, After Selecting Place of Meeting for Next Year.

The Woman's Missionary Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church mot again yesterday at 9 A. M. in Centenary The session was opened with devotional services, which were led by Mrs. Hall. The reports which were made by the district secretaries were all of a most encouraging nature, and showed that the society was in splendid condition in all sections of the State. Mrs. Newton, State Organizer of the Christian Temperance Union, who came before the body as a "fraternal messenger," was Introduced to the society. Dr. W. G. Starr made a short address, in which spoke words of encouragement to the society, and bade them God-speed in their noble work. Rev. Mr. Taylor and Rev. Mr. Judkins were also present. The business of the morning session was concluded with the reasing of the report of Mrs. Cheatham, the corresponding secretary of the State, after which lunch was served in the basement of the church.

The afternoon meeting of the society was devoted to religious exercises, an experience and prayer-meeting being experience and prayer-meeting being held. The services were led by Mrs. Margaret Davis, from the Eastern Shore. There was no night session westerday, the members being pretty well worn out with the work of the day.

At to-day's session officers will be elected, the treasurer's report received, and business matters discussed, after which the body will adjourn, to meet seain in annual session at some place to

THE POLICE INSPECTION.

A Fine Showing, and Encouraging Words From the Mayor.

The semi-annual inspection of the police of Police, had the men drawn up in double column in front of the hall, and the inspectors proceeded along between the columns examining the appearance of each officer as he was passed. About eighty officers and men were in line, headed by Captains Thomas, Angle, and Huice. It was generally admitted that the force never made a more splendid showing. The members were in full-dross uniform, and many of them had on new clothes. The ducies of the force, among them Captain Thomas, Sergeant Jones Otey, Privates Mei Fowikes, and E. H. Redford, had on creased trousers and tooth-pick shoes.

He said that he felt deeply gratified because of the excellent manner in which the officers and men had performed their duties, assuring them that by continuing their fidelity and perseverance in the interest of their city they would continue to merit and receive the plaudits of the people of Richmond.

The board then assembled in the private office of the Chief of Police and transacted the usual monthly business.

The Executive Committee of the Virginia State Agricultural and Mechanical Society held a meeting in President Wickham's office yesterday morning. Those ham's office yesterday morning. Those in attendance were: Colonel Wickham. Colonel Murphy. Messrs. Hardwicke, Watkins, Taylor, Doswell, Gaines, Wood, Cottrell, and Chamblin. The meeting was held for the purpose of considering the financial affairs of the society and the election of a secretary.

The committee discussed at great length the affairs of the organization, and several suggestions were made in regard to the best thing to be done under the existing circumstances to meet the gard to the best thing to be done under the existing circumstances to meet the society's obligations and arrange for fu-ture exhibitions. It was the sense of the committee that it, would be a great pity for the fairs to be discontinued, and some of the members expressed the hope that the city of Richmond would come to the assistance of the committee. A resolution was passed authorizing the president to appoint a committee of

BE A BIG MUSICAL EVENT.

First of the Metropolitan Concerts to Be a Brilliant Affair.

The forthcoming concert, to be given by Madame Nordica, Madame Linde, Mesars. William H. Rieger, John C. Dempsey, and Signor Clementino de Macchi, at the Academy next Tuesday, promises to be one of the most brilliant social events of the season, as well as one of the most of the most brilliant social events of the season, as well as one of the most artistic and successful concerts ever given in the popular playhouse.

Madame Nordica is expected to arrive is New York to-day from Europe on the Parst Bismarck. Richmond will be the first city in which she will be heard during her present tour of this country.

Abeit, the audience that will greet the famous singer next Tuesday will be very large, the subscription his does not compare at all favorably with those of the other cities to be visited by these remarkable organizations. Mr. Walter D. Moses, under whose direction these concerts will be given in Richmond, has been indefatigable in his efforts to bring the series, to the attention of musical people in the surrounding cities and towns. Were it not for the large proportion of visitors who will be included in the audience, it is a stanificant fact that the concert could not be given here without involving a very heavy pecuniary loss to the promulgaters.

FITZGERALD ALLOWED BAIL.

Is Released on $1,000 Bond-Matthews Not Badly Hurt.

The Hustings Court was engaged yesterday afternoon in hearing habeas corpus proceedings in the case of L. J. Fitzgeraid, the white man charged with feloniously shooting and wounding issae Mafthews (colored) near the polling-place of the First Precinct in Jackson Ward on election-day. The accused was represented by Mr. P. St. George Barraud, while Commonwea-th's-Attorney-Richardson looked after the interests of the prosecution. Drs. Bass and Staples tentified as to the nature of Matthews's injury, which they said was not serious. He received quite an ugly scalp wound. After considering the nature of the offence, Judge Witt decided to hall Fitzgeraid in the sum of $1,000. Bond was terday afternoon in hearing habeas Morrison to Appear Here To-Night. Morrison to Appear Here To-Night.

For a score of years or more Lewis Morrison has been presenting through this country the dramatic version of "Goethe's Faust," until it has become one of the standard attractions that the playgoers of this city look forward to as an annual visitor. It has a story full of intensity, and, above all, the staging that has been given the production by Mr.
Morrison puts it on the highest plane of spectacular theatric work. The devil, as impersonated by Mr. Morrison, is a jovial sort of person, a very diplomat in both speech and action, enticing in manners, and polished withal. There is nothing about him repellent except, perhaps his name. Among the features in hang about film repellent except, perhaps his name. Among the features in scenes and effects, probably the most notable one is that showing the fountain square at Nuremberg and the Brocken, which is essentially the intense scene of the play. Incidental to the presentation, Mr. Morrison effects the mark of a very Mr. Morrison offers the work of a very talented quartette of singers, and the chime of bells that is heard in connection with the church-scene is also particularly
